HOLIDAY HOTSPOTS!

Fancy a bit of celebrity-style glamour on your next hollibob? Then why not try one of these gorgeous locations...

WHY? Despite its competition, Ibiza is still party island numero uno. A haven for the rich and famous, they come here to party and then pick a quiet spot on neighbouring Formentera to sunbathe and re-gather before hitting Playa d'En Bossa all over again.

WHERE TO SPOT THEM: Blue Marlin is the most exclusive beach club in town, but also check out the Ushuala Tower Beach Hotel and Hard Rock's new restaurant. The restaurant El Chiringito is a celeb magnet as is Cipriani, a favourite of Leo DiCaprio.

Ushuaia Ibiza Opening Party to Feature Richie Hawtin, Guy Gerber, Maya Jane Coles and More

Last Year's Ushuaia Opening Party

As we inch our way through winter, Ibiza is gearing up for a new season and announcements of opening parties and residency line-ups are starting to flair up.

Ushuaia Ibiza, the island's biggest outdoor party venue, has announced an Opening Party lineup that veers away from the EDM-centric names it often houses throughout the season by focusing purely on a roster of underground stars. While ENTER.Ibiza is no more, the brand's head-honcho Richie Hawtin will be headlining the celebrations, accompanied by a supporting stars of excellence. In alphabetical order, he is joined by Andrea Oliva, the mind behind the Ants Colony concept, Rumor's Guy Gerber, ENTER.Sake's Hito, Hot Since 82, La Familia's Joris Voorn, Los Suruba and last but not least Maya Jane Coles.

Top 10: the best beach hotels in Ibiza

Ushuaïa Club, Playa d'en Bossa

Right on Playa d'en Bossa, one of the most fashionable beaches. The hotel is a mile and a half from the airport and a couple of miles from Ibiza town, so you can slide straight into the groove with no boring transfers. As for the vibe, think party central, basically, but in a chic way. The pool is surrounded by decking with plenty of daybeds to lounge around on, with quite a scene going on as the night wears on – and appearance by top DJs. There is also an achingly trendy beach club and a soothing spa in which to recover.

SCHWIMMST DU MIT MIR INS ZIMMER?

Von Tinga Horny | 16.02.2016 - 15:41

Vom Elounda Bay Palace auf Kreta bis zum Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel: Nach den Swim-up-Bars warten immer mehr Hotels mit Swim-up-Rooms auf.

In der Ferienhotellerie taucht der nächste Trend auf: Nach Swim-up-Bars, riesigen Poollandschaften und gigantischen Wasserrutschen rücken nun die Swim-up-Pools in den Blickpunkt. Dabei handelt es sich um Gästezimmer mit direktem Zugang zum Schwimmbecken. Vorreiter dieser Zimmerkategorie sind die Herbergen in der Karibik – in Mexiko, St. Lucia, der Dominikanischen Republik und Jamaika. Hotelketten wie Sandals sprechen damit vor allem Paare an und vermarkten Suiten mit direktem Poolzugang exklusiv als "Adults only"-Zimmer.

Hotels mit wenig Grund eignen sich schlecht für Swim-up-Zimmer. Denn in der Natur der Sache steckt der Umstand, dass dieser Raumtyp nur im Parterre liegen kann. Wenn sich der Gast nicht nur in einer Badewanne suhlen soll, sondern eine ganze Wasserstrasse idealerweise viele Gästezimmer miteinander verbindet, dann muss das Grundstück schon genug Platz für mehrere Gebäudeflügel haben. Das Schöne an einem Swim-up-Pool: Gäste können zu jeder Tages- und Nachtzeit ins kühle Nass

Ushuaia Ibiza: la line up dell'opening party

Ibiza regala sempre delle grosse soddisfazioni. Se le notizie delle ultime settimane avevano fatto storcere il naso ai fan integralisti dell'isola, adesso è tempo di belle novità.

I club scaldano i motori per la nuova stagione neppure troppo distante. E così ieri sera, come un fulmine a ciel sereno, l'Ushuaia Beach Club apre la danza dei grandi annunci che riguardano residenze e Opening Party. Nonostante le critiche ricevute essendo accusato di essere a capo della rivoluzione EDM ibizenca, il super hotel di Playa d'En Bossa non nasconde la sua passione per l'underground e cala una serie di assi niente male per la sua prima festa dell'anno.

New elite hotel offerings from Monarch

MONARCH HAS introduced new elite hotels in the resort of Playa D'en Bossa in Ibiza which is a main nightlife resort and home to famous nightclubs such as Space and Ushuaia. It also features the longest stretch of sandy beach on the island.

The operator is offering stays at the Hard Rock Hotel Ibiza from £585 per person based on two adults sharing a deluxe silver room on a May 5 departure from Gatwick. In addition to a prime beachfront location, when it comes to entertainment, the outdoor stage area plays host to regular gigs and artists, DJ nights and pool parties.

Meanwhile, for a slightly more sedate pace, the Grand Palladium White Island Resort & Spa offers a selection of pampering spa treatments, along with tennis, volleyball and water polo. Located on the beach, the hotel also offers an extensive pool area, with a kids' pool, two additional pools and a separate adult-only one.

Based on a May 5 departure for two adults sharing a double or twin room, prices lead in at £639 per person.

Palladium pone el foco en Estados Unidos y Dubái

CRECIMIENTO La cadena de la familia Matutes invertirá más de 800 millones para ampliar su presencia en Jamaica y México, y explora nuevos destinos.

Roberto Arroyo, Madrid
El cadena Palladium Hotel Group, propiedad del Grupo de Empresas Matutes (GEM), está analizando nuevas oportunidades para crecer a través de sus marcas insignia (Palladium y The Royal Suites) y, además de nuevos mercados en Hispanoamérica, analiza con interés instalarse en Estados Unidos e, incluso, en Emiratos Árabes. En estos dos últimos destinos, explora oportunidades en Las Vegas y Dubái, donde el grupo podría desembarcar con su línea más exclusiva Ushuaia.

Esta marca nació en 2011 impulsada por Abel Matutes Prats, director general de Palladium y vicepresidente del holding familiar, y actualmente está presente en Ibiza. Además, el grupo abrirá a finales de 2017 otro hotel de esta enseña en Cancún.

En principio, los planes del grupo pasan por crecer en estos países vía gestión, ya que actualmente está inmerso en un proceso de expansión en América Latina, que incluye la apertura de nuevos hoteles en Jamaica y México, con una inversión comprometida de entre 800 millones y 900 millones de euros en los próximos cinco años.

La firma cuenta actualmente con terrenos en Jamaica, para desarrollar un proyecto con dos hoteles, y en México, donde adquirió solares en Playa Mujeres (Cancún), con licencia para 1.700 habitaciones. En una primera fase, el grupo abrirá en esta área dos establecimientos de la marca Gran Palladium y The Royal Suites, con 700 y 450 habitaciones, respectivamente. Paralelamente, Palladium ha comprado otro terreno también en Cancún para implantar el primer Ushuaia fuera de Ibiza.

La inversión, sin contar terrenos, de la primera fase de hoteles (unos 1.150 habitaciones en Cancún) es de cerca de 220 millones de dólares y se pretende que estén operativas en noviembre de 2017.

Hard Rock de Tenerife
El grupo turístico no olvida España. En concreto, el próximo mes de octubre Palladium abrirá en Tenerife un Hard Rock, al que ha destinado una inversión de cerca de 70 millones para su remodelación.

La cadena cuenta actualmente con cerca de 50 hoteles en España, México, República Dominicana, Jamaica, Italia y Brasil, gestionados a través de sus distintas marcas: Palladium Hotels & Resorts, Fiesta Hotels & Resorts, Ushuaia, y, junto con El Corte Inglés, Ayre Hotels y Only You.

El grupo logró una facturación de más de 500 millones de euros en 2015, frente a los 420 millones del año anterior. La cadena cuenta con más de 14.000 habitaciones y, en temperatura alta, supera los 10.000 empleados.

Palladium exportará a México el concepto de su Hotel Ushuaia en Ibiza.

POSITION: 8

Now into its six year, Ibiza hotspot Ushuaia is a fully fledged super club with mega star line-ups to match. The club, which is attached to a super-lux, 417 room hotel and boasts a breath taking view over the Mediterranean, went all out EDM last year, with 5000 people cramming themselves in and around the famous pool on a regular basis. For their efforts they were rewarded with sets from the likes of Axwell & Ingrosso, David Guetta, Hardwell, Armin van Buuren, Martin Garrix and Avicii, which gives you some idea of the scale and sound of the headliners.

Though the sounds are often maximalist, the decor at Ushuaia is actually the opposite — it is rather minimalist and paired back, classy and plush. The main stage is a vast wooden dome more akin to a festival arena than a pool side DJ booth, and often parties are bathed in cooling blue and warming red lights.

The club boasts a crisp sound system and plenty of LED screens, all of which are being “constantly refreshed” according to the club itself. Add into that a wealth of pyrotechnics and the fact there aren't many places you can party under the Balearic sun doing the day, and you have the reason for Ushuaia's continued success.

Hardwell vuelve a Ushuaïa

REDACCIÓN | PLATJA D'EN BOSSA

●●● Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel sigue desgranando las fiestas que conformarán su line up para la temporada 2016 y esta semana ha llegado la confirmación de la residencia semanal de Hardwell.

Será el tercer año consecutivo en que el joven dj y productor holandés tenga su propia fiesta en Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel desde que aterrizara en el gran club al aire libre en 2014 con invitados de la talla de Afrojack o W&W. El año pasado fue el momento de Carnaval que se convirtió, por méritos propios, en una de las fiestas de la temporada.

Hardwell ha ocupado el primer puesto del ranking de dj Mag durante 2013 y 2014, lo que le acredita como mejor dj del mundo según la encuesta promovida por esta prestigiosa publicación, mientras que en 2015 siguió ocupando el segundo puesto. Actualmente está considerado como el Mejor Dj Internacional y Mejor Dj de Electro/Progressive House según los Ibiza DJ Awards.

El holandés vuelve a Eivissa con un concepto totalmente nuevo y dispuesto que su propuesta sea todavía «más grande, más audaz y más brillante» que sus fiestas anteriores.

Hardwell es muy conocido por sus actuaciones en directo ante grandes audiencias en los principales festivales de música de todo el mundo como Tomorrowland. Recientemente rompió sus propios registros en Mumbia -con su proyecto United We Are Foundation incluido en World's Biggest Guestlist- como el primer dj que consigue agotar las entradas en un estadio alemán con capacidad para más de 40.000 personas.

Además, el holandés ha sido uno de los artistas más nominados en los premios IDMA de la Winter Music Conference de Miami con 12 nominaciones, incluidas la de Best Solo Artist o Best Global Dj, lo que no hace sino confirmar su reputación como uno de arrancadores de partidos más consistentes de la música de baile.

Ibiza 2016 / Ibiza News / Hardwell set to return to Ushuaïa Ibiza for third consecutive year

There are very few things in life that have such an effect that time freezes over, the earth stops spinning and you pay attention to every single detail of what is about to happen. One of them is the announcement of Hardwell's return to Ushuaïa Ibiza for 2016.

How they say time stands still for no man... well not quite. Time stands still if you're a Dutch powerhouse named Hardwell. After all, according to the Ibiza DJ Awards, he is the Best International DJ and Best Electro/Progressive House DJ.

Returning to Ibiza for a third consecutive year under the open-air roof of Ushuaïa Ibiza, Hardwell will undoubtedly be in-demand and in command. The Flying Dutchman's exhilarating residency first graced the White Isle back in 2014 where he welcomed a variety of big-named special guests including the likes of Afrojack and W&W. A successful debut year as a resident for Ushuaïa Ibiza was soon followed up with a second entitled Hardwell's Carnival which was equally successful.

Taking over his regular Tuesday slot for the summer of 2016, Hardwell will bring with him a completely new concept that promises to be bigger and better than ever before. Hardwell's residency will begin on Tuesday 28th June at the opening party and will continue right through until the closing party on Tuesday 6th September.

The full line-ups are yet to be revealed, yet but to provide you with an insight of what to expect, in 2015, Hardwell had such guests as W&W, Dennis and KIG The Buzz.

With the best DJ in the world on hand behind the decks and the best production in Ibiza on offer from Ushuaïa Ibiza, you can only expect this to be Hardwell's best residency yet.

HARDWELL ANNOUNCES SUMMER 2016 RESIDENCY AT USHUAIA HOTEL

Along with the recent announcement of his Hardwell Presents Revealed party during Miami Music Week, Hardwell has also confirmed that he is returning to Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel once again this year. Coming back for his third consecutive year as a club resident, the Dutch heavyweight is set to provide another series of unforgettable nights on the world-renowned party island. For his 2016 residency, Hardwell will be behind the decks every Tuesday from June 28th to September 6th; however, he has confirmed that he will not make an appearance on August 10.

Following a formidable debut residency in 2014, with an array of special guests such as Afrojack and W&W, Hardwell raised the roof even higher during last year's fiesta-themed Hardwell's Carnival. Fast forward to 2016, the two-time #1 DJ looks to deliver even bigger sets this year especially with great momentum in his side. Already known for his willingness to push boundaries, notably from his record-breaking concert in Mumbai last December, don't be surprised to see if Hardwell has something up his sleeve for his weekly performances in Ushuaia this summer.

Tickets for Hardwell's shows are available for purchase here. Full lineup announcements are coming soon.

When you head to the Ibiza sea, even the most unworldly of travellers know what they are getting. Sun, sea, sand and sound – sorted as they say.

When the heat drops at 10pm on a Saturday night you and the 1,000,000 going strong around you know all about it.

But while Ibiza still gives visitors the opportunity to dance all night and celebrate all day, it doesn't have to be like that.

I found at the Grand Palladium White Island Beach and Spa where there's nothing to stress things up.

The perfect five-star beach in Palmaroma's portfolio of resorts across the Mediterranean and Caribbean, White Island is built on the site of the Roman Forum. It has 1,000 rooms, a 15-minute transfer from the island's airport.

Along with the Grand Palladium White Island Beach and Spa next door, White Island Palmaroma has the lofty aim of making Ibiza the best end-of-the-year destination, not only for couples but the whole of the island.

White Island has 400 rooms, almost half of which are suites, decked out in ultra-modern decor. Combined with the Palmaroma complex is the biggest resort in Ibiza.

White Island comes a huge range of facilities to cater for the whole family.

NOW into its six year, Ibiza hotspot Ushuaïa is a fully fledged superclub with mega star line-ups to match. The club, which is attached to a super-lux, 417-room hotel and boasts a breathtaking view over the Mediterranean, went all out EDM last year, with 5000 people cramming themselves in and around the famous pool on a regular basis. For their efforts they were rewarded with sets from the likes of Axwell & Ingrosso, David Guetta, Hardwell, Armin van Buuren, Martin Garrix and Arich, which gives you some idea of the scale and sound of the headliners.

Though the sounds are often maximalist, the decor at Ushuaïa is actually the opposite – it is rather minimalist and pared back, classy and plush. The main stage is a vast wooden dome more akin to a festival arena than a possible DJ booth, and often parties are hosted in cooling blue and warning red lights. The club boasts a crisp soundsystem and plenty of LED screens, all of which are being “constantly refreshed”, according to the club itself. Add into that a wealth of pyrotechnics and the fact that there aren’t many places you can party under the Ibiza’s sun during the day, and you have the reason for Ushuaïa’s continued success.

HARDWELL ANNOUNCES RETURN TO USHUAÏA IBIZA

EVERY TUESDAY FROM JUNE 28TH TO SEPTEMBER 6TH USHUAÏA IBIZA BEACH HOTEL PLAYA D'EN BOSSA, IBIZA

Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel can now reveal that Dutch powerhouse DJ/Producer Hardwell is confirmed for his third consecutive year as club resident, taking the helm every Tuesday from June 28th to September 6th.

Having first made his mark at the famed open-air club back in 2014, the past two years spent at Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel have been formative to Hardwell and his thrilling career. His debut residency welcomed an array of special guests including Afrojack and W&W, whilst 2015 saw the launch of his fiesta themed Hardwell's Carnival. Currently named the 'Best International DJ' and 'Best Electro/Progressive House DJ' according to the Ibiza DJ Awards, Hardwell will return to Ibiza in 2016 with an entirely new concept that's set to be bigger, bolder and brighter than before.

No stranger to commanding large audiences, Hardwell recently took his sound to smashing records in Mumbai – with his United We Are Foundation project including the 'World's Biggest Guestlist' – as well as becoming the first headline DJ to sell-out a 40,000 capacity German arena. More recently, the Dutch DJ found himself being one of the most nominated artists in this year's IDMA awards with an incredible twelve

Avicii, l'ultimo atto all'Ushuaia di Ibiza

La presenza dello svedese più chiacchierato del momento presso l'Ushuaia di Ibiza per la stagione estiva non è una novità, negli anni il ventiquattrenne ha più volte confermato la residency nell'hotel più famoso dell'isola. Ebbene la novità è che il 28 agosto 2016 sarà la data dell'ultimo show in assoluto di Avicii. L'ultima speranza per poter vedere all'opera il giovane di Stoccolma, in quello che è stato annunciato come uno show ricco di emozioni e senza precedenti, nella magnifica cornice di una delle maggiori realtà dance al mondo. Uno spettacolare calo di sipario con un live finale degno di una carriera che più gloriosa di così si può solo sognare. La residency dello svedese inizierà il 10 luglio e vi consigliamo di iniziare a organizzarvi per non rischiare di perdere quella che potrebbe divenire una pietra miliare nella storia dell'EDM. Per quanto riguarda invece il nuovo album, la release è pianificata a posteriori del suo ultimo tour.

AXWELL \ INGROSSO TO RETURN TO USHUAÏA FOR 2016 RESIDENCY

B E Y L L I O S • T M O B N R T O H W S N A G O

As plans for their 2016 season progress, Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel can now reveal that Axwell \ Ingrosso are set to return to their Wednesday residency slot from 6th July to 7th September.

Two of the most high-profile DJs in the electronic world, Axwell \ Ingrosso have a long-standing history with Ushuaïa having frequently performed over the last 5 years. Since forming as a duo in 2014, Axwell \ Ingrosso made their debut at the open-air club for 'Departures' and quickly proved their colossal credentials with a swift return in 2015.

Set to showcase the very best in electronic music with an array of special guests in tow for their 2016 residency, the pair's reign also has an outstanding global impact which most recently saw them reach the #1 spot on Billboard's end-of-year dance charts for 'Something New', and followed the huge successes of 'Sun is Shining' which will soon reach an incredible 100 million Spotify plays.

With the promise of huge solo and collaborative projects scheduled for the year ahead – all kick started by a surprise release of the instrumental mix of 'Dream Bigger' on New Year's Eve – the latest Axwell \ Ingrosso Ushuaïa residency sees the Swedish tastemakers uphold their status and genre tastemakers, with plenty of ammunition on its way.

Axwell \ Ingrosso may not have a roof to blow off, but in their weekly show-stopping experience beneath the Ibizan night, they are sure to be aiming even higher.

Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel 2016 Opening Party Reintroduces the Isle to Its Seminal Season

The 2016 Ibiza season is officially underway, with the spectacular Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel kicking off proceedings. From midday to the last light of the famously flammable stage, the crowd hit full capacity in what was a spectacular and memorable opening party. Known for pulling out all the stops with her musical anthems, Maya Jane Coles took to the stage with a sophisticated deep house set, with Joris Voorn also on hand to maintain the techno momentum. Performances also came from the inimitable Hot Since 82 who has seen a meteoric rise over the years as well as Ibiza favourite Guy Gerber, while Spanish DJ duo

Los Suruba delivered a typically darker-leaning assault on the dancefloor. Bringing charm and sophistication to the table was Hito, who provided an inspiring set with Ushuaïa favourite Andrea Olivia - blazing through the Balearic sun and thus proving their position as part of the real underground elite.

Event headliner and techno visionary - Richie Hawtin - created a dance floor explosion as the day came to a climax, with a truly spell-binding set that perfectly demonstrated his unique yet minimal sound. Building up to a powerful crescendo, the overpowering rhythms were briefly accompanied by an unexpected shower from the Balearic skies which descended over a mass of faithful Ushuaïa revellers. A short yet fitting interlude into what was an omnipotent closing act, the club's opening party certainly set the standard for the season ahead.

With the venue bathed in every colour, the dancers clothed in mesmerizing costume and the audience lit by pyrotechnics, not even a short rain shower could deter the dance of a full attendance, establishing the dominance of Ushuaïa upon the White Isle. Between the palpable combination of the stunning open-air club and the unbeatable line ups featured on the ultimate party calendar, the White Isle can expect the best from Ushuaïa - accredited as the only place to be this summer.

Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel se va a volcar para despedir durante todo este verano a una de sus grandes estrellas durante estos últimos cinco años, el dj y productor sueco Tim Bergling, conocido con el nombre artístico de Avicii.

Lo hará con una serie de shows que se prolongarán desde el próximo 10 de julio hasta el 28 de agosto, día en el que se celebrará una gran fiesta en directo que, según sus organizadores, «consagrará a Avicii como uno de los más grandes de la historia musical del club».

No en vano, el dj sueco es el creador de algunos de los mayores éxitos de la última década como Levels, Hey Brother, Addicted to You, Broken Arrows, For a Better Day, Fade into Darkness, The Days, The Nights o Waiting For Love. Incluso, en junio de 2013 con Wake Me Up, tema en el que colaboró el cantante estadounidense Aloe Blacc, consiguió el número uno en más de 30 países incluyendo Reino Unido, Suecia, Países Bajos, Australia, España y Argentina, entre otros. Y además, el 13 de junio de 2015 fue uno de los invitados estrella de la boda real del príncipe Carlos Felipe de Suecia y Sofía Cristina de Suecia, celebrada en Estocolmo.

Sin embargo, y a pesar de que en este año, según un informe por la revista Inc, Avicii fue la sexta empresa de mayor crecimiento en Europa, con unos ingresos de 7,7 millones de euros en 2014, el 29 de marzo anunció de manera inesperada, por medio de una emotiva carta en sus redes sociales, su retiro de los escenarios por un tiempo indefinido para centrarse más en él y en sus proyectos personales.

Por todo ello, su quinta y última temporada en Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel «será todavía más especial y memorable».

Revealed Recordings, el sello de Hardwell, celebra dos fiestas increíbles este verano 2016 en Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Club, el 14 y 21 de junio.

Revealed es el nombre de las dos sesiones de calentamiento que, como de costumbre, tendrán lugar a principio de la temporada de verano en Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Club, una especie de irresistible aperitivo antes de que empiece la residencia de Dj Hardwell en este icónico club de Playa d'en Bossa.

Organizadas para dar a conocer a grandes artistas vinculados al sello de Hardwell, Revealed Recordings, estas dos sesiones tendrán lugar este verano 2016 el martes 14 de junio y el martes 21 de junio a partir de las 17 horas.

ANTS CALIENTA MOTORES PARA EL VERANO

Vuelve en su cuarto año

Una de las fiestas más importantes de Ibiza confirma su vuelta por cuarto año. Contará con dos fechas de pretemporada en mayo para calentar más si cabe el clima.

Actualmente nadie que se considere consumidor de música electrónica –de cualquier estilo nos atreveríamos a decir– desconoce Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel, uno de los buques insignia de la isla blanca. No por nada se ha alzado tres veces con el Vicious Music Award al Mejor Hotel Club del Año. El hotel más conocido de la Platja d'en Bossa consigue estar en boca de todos gracias a sus instalaciones, a los equipos (tanto visuales como de sonido), al trato especial a sus clientes; pero sobre todo se debe a que alberga cada verano varias de las mejores fiestas del panorama nacional e internacional que a su vez cuentan con los artistas más reclamados del panorama global. Entre todas ellas encontramos posiblemente la que más ha hecho para que Ushuaia este en el podio, esta es ANTS.

La polifacética fiesta comenzó en 2013 y ha conseguido alzarse como una de las mejores sesiones musicales de media tarde de la isla, y teniendo en cuenta que Ibiza es la meca de la electrónica global, es un gran mérito. En el que será su cuarto año volverá a ocupar los sábados de la isla con el toque underground al que nos ha acostumbrado en sus pasadas ediciones. ANTS llenará de nuevo el territorio ibicenco de hormigas en una temporada en la que prometen contar con numerosas sorpresas.

Review: Ushuaia opening party 2016

May 31, 2016 / TinTin Mac

Ushuaia Ibiza's 2016 opening party, was an extravaganza not to be missed. The party consisted of a strong and heavy line up of house & techno headliners.

I arrived at the venue just after four, Guy Gerber was already in the mix, when I got there I was continuing from the live stream on Sonica that I had been listening to in a taxi on my way there. So the mood was already set, I got to the venue not knowing what to expect from this prestigious venue but I was expectant and ready for something new.

Ushuaia ON FIRE!

The five-star hotel-cum-day-rave gears up for another run...

Now in its sixth year, Ibiza hotspot Ushuaia has established itself as one of the White Isle's go-to day parties for star-studded line-ups. The club, which is attached to a deluxe, 417-room hotel and boasts views over the Mediterranean, went all-out stadium dance music last year, with 5000 people cramming themselves in and around the

Among those who took to the decks in 2015 were Axwell & Ingrosso, David Guetta, Hardwell, Armin van Buuren, Martin Garrix and Avicii, which gives you some idea of the scale of the headliners. This year will see the club launch a brand new Thursday residency called BLUE, with OLIVER HELDENS and ROBIN SCHULZ among the acts lined up to play. ANTS is

That amazing island off the east coast of Spain will hold a lot of magic. Not just because it has some of the best clubs in the world — the White Isle has a wealth of other stuff on offer too, from great places to eat to gorgeous beaches to lush culture.
But it's the clubs it is probably best known for, and now the season is open as once again Ibiza is with an intensity as ever musically, and now the new season or so goes we'll show you how — by running down all the highlights on offer at all the island's principal clubs. Starting, of course, with Space — voted No. 1 club in the world in our last Top 100 Clubs vote — which is entering its final season this year...

IBIZA ROCKS!

OK! EXPLORES SOME OF THE PARTY ISLAND'S HIDDEN DELIGHTS

Nicknamed the White Isle, Ibiza never fails to draw in the crowds looking for a summer of fun. But it's easy to forget that the European summer party capital offers more than just a constant whirlwind of clubs and parties. For those who want to have some downtime, there are super-cool beach clubs for relaxing lunches, sunset yoga sessions and lots of chic boutiques in the narrow cobbled streets of Ibiza's Old Town where you can upgrade your summer wardrobe. OK!'s Kirsty Hatcher visited the Spanish island to discover more...

WHERE CAN I STAY?

Swapping the skyscrapers of London for the whitewashed villages and undulating hills of Ibiza, OK! headed over for a long weekend staying at the luxurious Villa Skyfall. Just a ten-minute drive from the airport and overlooking Es Cavaller and Salinas beaches, the stylish villa provides a tranquil escape from the island's non-stop party scene. The Chic Ibiza Villas' property sleeps up to eight people over four suites and features a spacious open-plan kitchen, lounge and dining area that opens out onto a lovely terrace. The polished concrete floors and modern artwork (giant Buddha and leopard sculptures as well as photographs of the Rat Pack) give Skyfall a contemporary feel, while the sun loungers and inviting Balinese day beds are perfect for an afternoon siesta or to soak in the breathtaking views after cooling off in the pool. Run by two British expats, Chic Ibiza Villas also offers Villa Mariposa, next door to Skyfall, if you're visiting with a larger party, as well as more than 100 villas on the island.

WHERE CAN I EAT?

Despite the well-equipped kitchen at Skyfall, OK! chose to use the culinary services of Dallicious, a catering firm run by the wonderful Miles and Markito, for our in-villa dining needs. One of our dinner highlights was the paella they cooked for us on the terrace, but what they're renowned for are their barbecues. Banish any thoughts of a British barbecue and instead think of freshly baked bread and moules mariniere followed by honey mustard pork, Cajun-spiced beef fillet and inventive salads. Elsewhere, beneath a canopy of giant bamboo and amid tropical foliage and flaming torches, Bambuddha provides the perfect setting for exotic cocktails, pan-Asian cuisine and celebrity spotting – Peter Crouch and Abbey Clancy are fans. OK! enjoyed sharing spring rolls, pad Thai and crispy duck and mandarin pancakes washed down with the Jay and Bubbling Buddha cocktails.

For a lovely leisurely lunch, OK! recommends the Amanite Beach Club, where Naomi Campbell and Kyle Minogue have been spotted. Nestled between two rocky outcrops on a secluded bay on the east coast, we tucked into fish croquettes and a fillet of beef with yam fries. After a few hours chilling on a sunlounger listening to the Balearic beats, we watched the sun set while sipping a glass of chilled rose wine.

If you're visiting the island this week, don't miss the opening of a new STK outpost in Ibiza Town. The steakhouse, which opens on July 1, features two private dining rooms, an ocean-view terrace, guest DJs and a secret entrance for VIPs!

WHICH STARS WILL I SEE?

The island attracts everyone from A-listers to reality stars. Mariah Carey, Kate Moss and Ellie Goulding are fans, as are Kim Kardashian and Kanye West, Millie Mackintosh and Jess Wright. While OK! was visiting, Caroline Fleck was also on the island enjoying a luxury fitness retreat at The Body Camp and Rochelle Humes has just returned from a visit. A favourite celeb haunt on the island is the Ocean Beach Club. Celebrating its fourth birthday this summer, it's frequented by the likes of Mark Wright and Joey Essex, and it's also where Frankie Bridge hosted her hen party in 2014. The club's champagne spray parties are legendary and you'll probably spot a FOWE star in the VIP area.

WHERE CAN I PARTY?

May is when the island really starts to heat up and the super-clubs get ready to welcome the masses. This summer, open-air club and hotel Ushuaia will see the likes of David Guetta, Avicii and Groove Armada take to the decks, while Paris Hilton and Exmouth will play for revellers at Amnesia. OK! partied like a VIP at

How to have the ultimate Ibiza weekend

This year, the party isle is all about finding the yin to your yang. So, for every boozy shot, there's a detox brunch and for each liquid lunch, there's a lounge...

Words by Laura Martin

Featured June 16

Thought Ibiza was all ear-pounding EDM DJs throwing cake into the crowds? Well, if that's how you roll, you can definitely still find that on the island. But, this year, the buzz phrase for the White Isle is 'conscious raving' - and it's all about finding balance. So, while a couple of nights dancing until the sun comes up are still essential items on the checklist, a 2016 weekend break is all about offsetting that with some yoga, a wellness brunch or a superfood supper club. Basically, it's good news for your liver. The ultimate goal? To not step onto the plane home feeling completely broken. And, take it from us, it's eminently doable if you follow a few easy steps...

 Ushuaia pool

Ushuaia

We love the pool parties at Ushuaia. Dancing outdoors as the sun goes down is what it's all about. Plus it's all over by midnight giving you time to catch your breath before heading over the road to Space or grabbing a cab to Pacha.

David Guetta will be serving it BIG on Mondays for ten dates from 27 June. Guetta is an Ibiza icon so this is essential. Ants' cornerstone residency is running through the summer on Fridays with the likes of Groove Armada and Joris Voorn mixing it up with some great visual production. The rest of the summer continues to be a who's who of dance with Avicii on Sundays, Steve Aoki from 22 June and Martin Garrix, Hardwell and even Tinie Tempah rocking up on various days to keep up the pressure. It's all a bit dizzying so check out the calendar below.

Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel 2016 Opening Party Reintroduces the Isle to Its Seminal Season

The 2016 Ibiza season is officially underway, with the spectacular Ushuaïa Ibiza Beach Hotel kicking off proceedings. From midday to the last light of the famously flammable stage, the crowd hit full capacity in what was a spectacular and memorable opening party. Known for pulling out all the stops with her musical anthems, Maya Jane Coles took to the stage with a sophisticated deep house set, with Joris Voom also on hand to maintain the techno momentum. Performances also came from the inimitable Hot Since 82 who has seen a meteoric rise over the years as well as Ibiza favourite Guy Gerber, while Spanish DJ duo Los Suruba delivered a typically darker-leaning assault on the dancefloor. Bringing cham and sophistication to the table was Hito, who provided an inspiring set with Ushuaïa favourite Andrea Olivia - blazing through the Balearic sun and thus proving their position as part of the real underground elite.

Event headliner and techno visionary - Richie Hawtin - created a dance floor explosion as the day came to a climax, with a truly spell-binding set that perfectly demonstrated his unique yet minimal sound. Building up to a powerful crescendo, the overpowering rhythms were briefly accompanied by an unexpected shower from the Balearic skies which descended over a mass of faithful Ushuaïa revellers. A short yet fitting interlude into what was an omnipotent closing act, the club's opening party certainly set the standard for the season ahead.

With the venue bathed in every colour, the dancers clothed in mesmerizing costume and the audience lit by pyrotechnics, not even a short rain shower could deter the dance of a full attendance, establishing the dominance of Ushuaïa upon the White Isle. Between the palpable combination of the stunning open-air club and the unbeatable line ups featured on the ultimate party calendar, the White Isle can expect the best from Ushuaïa - accredited as the only place to be this summer.

ANTS protagonizará mañana por la noche su

tercera sesión junto a Andrea Oliva y Kölsch

Ushuaia y su pujante fiesta ANTS están preparadas para otra temporada histórica. Tras dos eventos "pre season" en el mes de mayo y un espectacular opening party el pasado 4 de junio, la colonia más underground de Ibiza desvela el calendario de sus artistas hasta el 24 de septiembre.

Con una cuidada selección de djs, que invita a los asistentes a bailar desde los sonidos más dinámicos hasta los más deep, el calendario de 2016 estará capitaneado por uno de los nombres propios de ANTS, Andrea Oliva, que ha tenido un lugar especial en la marca desde sus inicios, así como por grandes artistas ya consagrados dentro del panorama clubber. Groove Armada, Kölsch, Eli & Fur, Joris Voorn y DJ Sneak también estará a bordo de ANTS, respaldados por djs cuya clase en el escenario han venido demostrando en los últimos años como los acudados Sasha o Pete Tong. Mañana, sábado, encabeza el line up Andrea Oliva, que comparte cartel con Kölsch, Catz'n Dogz, Joris Voorn, Mr J y Tapesch.

Siete citas semanales con la música urbana

Hip hop, soul, R&B, funk, dancehall, trap y old school son

los ritmos que predominan en las fiestas del club

SWAG Ibiza Club se ha convertido desde hace dos años en el primer club de música urbana en la isla. Esta temporada regresa copando todos los días de la semana con siete fiestas con las que espera conquistar a los asistentes.

Swag nace bajo la idea de romper con el cliché tradicional de la relación entre Ibiza y la música electrónica, porque el mundo está cambiando y la gente también. Por ello, este club de Platja d'en Bossa atrae a jóvenes y no tan jóvenes que buscan una propuesta diferente, otro tipo de ambiente, música y fiesta. El concepto de Swag es una propuesta inspirada en algunas discotecas de Las Vegas, París, Amsterdam o Bruselas.

El público disfrutando de una de las fiestas de SWAG.

• El club de Platja d'en Bossa es la primera sala de música urbana de la isla desde 2014

Está basado principalmente en factores como, en primer lugar, su tipo de música, porque, lejos de ser una sala más de sonidos electrónicos, navega entre el funky, R&B, soul o hip-hop en sus distintas fiestas, cada una con su propia identidad, para satisfacer los gustos de todos aquellos que se sienten más identificados con estos estilos de música.

Y en segundo lugar, es el carácter protagonista que SWAG otorga a sus clientes, ya que ellos jugarán el papel más importante y no el dj de la cabina. Y es que SWAG tampoco se limita a la noche, sino que continúa por el día, en playas, barcos y en cualquier sitio donde se quiera llevar.

BIG ROOM HOUSE IS GETTING BIGGER!

This summer Ushuaïa continues to solidify its glory as the main EDM hub of the whole island: it has welcomed solid new party concepts and a few outstanding one-off gigs by major DJ stars.

Mondays from June 27 till August 29 once again belong to the never-fading David Guetta. This time the event's theme is simply BIG, which hints simultaneously at big house as the genre of choice here as well at the scale of production. Nervo sisters, sharing decks with Guetta a few summers ago, are now headliners in their own right and will host NERVO Nation parties on June 6, 13 and 20 and September 5, 12 and 19 (Mondays as well).

Tuesdays from June 28 till September 13 continue to be ruled by the young and efficient Hardwell. The concept he elaborated this season, DNA, promises to be a tad more mysterious than his previous ideas – such as Carnival. Following the good tradition of looking after those who arrive a bit earlier, Hardwell's own Revealed record label will host two events, on June 14 and 21.

Wednesday in Ushuaia has been Swedesday since the very inception of the infamous party hotel. Axwell & Ingrosso will go on with their residency from July 6 till September 7, causing massive entrance queues and overall euphoria.

As for Thursdays, from June 30 till September 3 we welcome a new brilliant concept: Blue. Oliver Heldens and/or Robert Schulz will be playing weekly, supported by Feder, Jonas Blue, Alex Adair and other inspirational artists. Three dates – July 14 and 28 and August 17 – will be ruled by the Norwegian prodigy of Kygo playing live, accompanied by Thomas Kack, Kimotion, Michael Calfan and the likes.

Armin van Buuren, who used to occupy Thursdays on a weekly basis last summer, will be back for two special one-offs: on July 29 (Friday) and September 11 (Sunday). Not to be missed!

USHUAÏA ON FIRE

The plush daytime rave-up gets some wicked new names for its 2016 season...

Now in its sixth year, Ibiza hotspot Ushuaia has established itself as one of the White Isle's go-to day parties for star-studded line-ups. The club, which is attached to a deluxe, 417-room hotel and boasts views over the Mediterranean, went all-out stadium dance music last year, with 5000 people cramming themselves in and around the famous pool on a regular basis. Among those who took to the decks in 2015 were Axwell & Ingrosso, David Guetta, Hardwell, Armin van Bauren, Martin Garrix and Avicii, which gives you some idea of the scale of the headliners.

This year will see the club launch a brand-new Thursday residency called BLUE, with Oliver Heldens and Robin Schulz among the acts lined up to play. Unfortunately not a tribute night to Eiffel 65's Eurodance classic or the UK boyband, the new residency is centred around the theme of "summer sounds and housey beats". It seems likely to be a chilled-out affair, with the club billing it as an "oasis of tranquility" in their otherwise frenetic schedule — think future/tropical house and more. Also set to play are Lost Frequencies, Thomas Jack, Felix Jaehn, Feder, Klingande and more. Blue kicks off on 30th June running for 13 weeks.

But that's not all! ANTS is back on Saturday nights, kicking things off with Groove Armada. Ushuaia is also giving selected artists the chance to take over the club for a few nights during the season. Tropical house star Kygo will play three dates in July and August, with guests including Thomas Jack, Sam Feldt, Bakermat and more. Another new addition is Timie Tempah, who will host a six-night residency — expect a mix of grime, hip-hop and UK garage, plus performances from the MC and guests.

USHUAÏA: L'HOTEL DELLA RIVOLUZIONE

L'Ushuaïa si presenta sempre con lo slogan "L'hotel che ha cambiato Ibiza". Come dargli torto? I suoi party hanno davvero rivoluzionato le abitudini dell'Isla, sia per la tipologia della location che degli orari; la programmazione poi è impressionante: David Guetta (lunedì), Hardwell (martedì), Axwell ^ Ingrosso (mercoledì), Solomun, Kygo e Oliver Heldens (giovedì), Garrix e van Buuren (venerdì), Andrea Oliva (sabato) e Avicii (domenica). Avicii suona a Ibiza dal 10 luglio al 28 agosto. Se i suoi propositi di ritiro saranno confermati, il 28 agosto si terrà la sua ultima performance di sempre a Ibiza.

36 ore a Ibiza: guida pratica alla sopravvivenza

Ritmi di lavoro apocalittici e poco tempo libero? Soluzioni essenziali per una toccata e fuga sull'isola, che non è più quella di una volta (lo dice anche Carl Cox)

La tua prima volta a Ibiza – “Ibiza virgin” non è una categoria pornografica (anche perché suonerebbe come un ossimoro) bensì uno dei topic più discussi sui forum di viaggi e sui siti specializzati di musica. Il senso è: a Ibiza bisogna arrivare preparati, come quando partiamo per qualche viaggio esotico. Niente che riguardi vaccini o permessi particolari, il riferimento è piuttosto all'ambito delle idee, meglio se molto chiare. Per una neppure tanto strana legge statistica, ognuno di noi ha almeno un amico che è stato almeno una volta a Ibiza. Ecco, affidatevi a lui. Saprà esporvi le prime nozioni fondamentali per non perdervi ulteriormente nella notte ibizena che si mescola con il giorno, soprattutto se le ore a vostra disposizione sono poche. La toccata e fuga è soluzione da non sottovalutare. I ritmi di lavoro apocalittici, il poco tempo libero e un occhio alla personalissima spending review suggeriscono soluzioni alternative ma altrettanto redditizie sia per voi che per l'isola.

Gran semana de closings

En los próximos días se despiden las estrellas del club Martin Garrix, Avicii y David Guetta, así como la fiesta de los jueves, Blue

Ho y viernes da comienzo la gran semana de closings en el Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel. El club de Platja d'en Bossa despidе a partir de esta noche a sus grandes residentes de la temporada, empezando por el joven holandés Martin Garrix, que culmina, por segundo año consecutivo, su propia fiesta 'Multiply', donde ha redoblado sus esfuerzos para que el público goce de su show. El siguiente en despedirse es Avicii, aunque el suyo sí es un adiós definitivo. El popular dj pone punto y final a los escenarios tras haber pasado estos últimos cinco años pinchando en Ibiza. Este domingo tendrá lugar la esperada fecha, un último show en directo que le consagrará dentro de la historia musical del club. Seguidamente, el lunes el dj francés David Guetta dirá adiós a la temporada del 2016 con su épica fiesta 'Big', que nunca cambia su concepto, a pesar de que lleva ya cinco veranos en Ushuaia. Igualmente, el jueves la apuesta de esta temporada del club, Blue, pone punto y final a una temporada en la que han triunfado los sonidos más tropicales y el ritmo más house.

Located poolside of the Ushuaia hotel, Ushuaia Ibiza is home to one of the most exhilarating day parties on the planet and is completely open-air. Forget about getting downright sweaty and gross (as some Ibiza clubs may leave you), Ushuaia is completely uncovered and allows you to enjoy the beautiful sunshine and blissful Ibiza summer evenings all while staying relatively cool. Whether you're dancing your ass off, or simply there to enjoy a few (Ibiza priced!) drinks and listen to some good music, you can expect to enjoy the presence of some of the world's biggest DJs without having to break too much of a sweat. Larger-than-life CO2 cannons shoot across the main dance floor keep you cool, and there's tons of gorgeous and friendly bartenders at multiple bars to quench your thirst.

The stage itself is simply amazing and is something you would see at any major festival. The set-up on stage changes for every headliner show (expect to see artists like Martin Garrix, Armin van Buuren, Kygo and many more), and puts on a spectacular light show at night. You can expect to see some of your favorite DJs with the stunning Ibiza sunset as your backdrop, and if you look up at the right time, you'll even see planes up close and landing at the nearby airport. It truly is a sight to see in person.

Ushuaia Ibiza is just a 10 minute drive from Ibiza town, and is located directly across Space Ibiza. It's also great because you can walk to most places from Ushuaia and even grab a bite to eat at one of the many nearby restaurants. The location gives you the perfect pre-game spot and also allows you to walk off some of those drinks.

Despedidas espectaculares

El dúo australiano Nervo Nation (arriba) y el gran Solomun en pleno show.

Desde hoy, y durante toda esta semana, Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel ofrece las últimas oportunidades de disfrutar y vivir en directo shows únicos que finalizan sus residencias de esta temporada 2016, dejando su huella un verano más en el club de Platja d'en Bossa. Esta noche, el rapero británico de moda, Tinie Tempah, protagonizará el cierre de su Disturbing Ibiza, una fiesta que, lejos de molestar, ha hecho disfrutar a todos aquellos que comenzaron a seguirle en junio y que ahora se despiden del calor en septiembre. Disturbing ha traído buenas dosis de hip hop, pop y grime, su combinación perfecta. Tras un fin de semana de ANTS, que aún tienen otra sesión por delante, el dúo de hermanas rubias Nervo se despiden el lunes de Ushuaia y de su fiesta Nervo Nation en la que han conquistado la escena ibicenca a los mandos de la cabina. Para terminar con las despedidas, el próximo miércoles 21 de septiembre, la tercera y última sesión de Solomun+Live promete no dejar indiferente a nadie. Le acompañarán Stephan Bodzin y H.O.S.H., así como Igor Maríjuan, de Ibiza Sonica Radio, que ha estado presente en todas sus actuaciones.

12 horas mágicas

Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel se despide con ocho actuaciones memorables y un llenazo absoluto

Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel cerró sus puertas el pasado sábado con un lleno absoluto en una de las mejores fiestas del verano con ocho actuaciones memorables que conquistaron a las miles de personas que, durante más de doce horas, bailaron sin parar la mejor música underground. En los alrededores del beach hotel se instaló una carpa gigante con pantallas y efectos visuales en la que superhéroes y científicos regalaron a los asistentes 7.000 capas de superhéroes.

La gran fiesta de clausura comenzó al mediodía con el tech house del chileno Francisco Allendes. A las dos de la tarde llegó el turno de la dj Lauren Lane, cuyos oscuros y elegantes sonidos hicieron vibrar el local de Platja d'en Bossa. Tras la estadounidense, siguió la actuación magistral de Damian Lazaruse, el mago de los sonidos y capitán del aclamado sello Cross-town Rebels. El dj y productor cargó de su mismo espíritu a la actuación. Un hecho final para la temporada brillante por donde han pasado los mejores djs de la escena house, tech house y techno underground.

Superheroes Bring The Ushuaia Curtain Down

Since it first opened its doors with a roadblock party, Ushuaia Hotel has made a habit of bookmarking its season in spectacular style. Bringing down the curtain on Ibiza 2016, Ushuaia opted for a super hero theme, turning to a group of talented spinners, charged with the protection of the underground! One of the major talking points of the open air beach club in recent years, apart schedule boasts more of a big room sound but traditionally the closing has seen it embrace a much deeper beat and the island normally turns out to say goodbye. 2016 has been a fantastic summer, it kicked off earlier and ran longer than ever before and record numbers landed on the island, many of whom made their way to Ushuaia for at least one of its weekly parties.

Review: Ushuaïa Ibiza closing party, 2016

Fanning the Ushuaïa flames one last time this summer

One word sprung to mind throughout the duration of Saturday night's closing extravaganza at Ushuaïa, and that word was EXHILIRATION, because absolutely everything about this fiesta was fast paced. And with the theme of the night being superheroes, three quarters of the crowd were sporting capes, masks, and any other accessories that symbolised saving the world. The entrance was transformed into a giant-sized tunnel that was billowing smoke and lasers, and inside were multiple cases made for the putting on of superhero costumes, as well as computers that looked like they'd been stolen from the set of Back To The Future.

The bopping house of Black Coffee was leaking from the venue, teasing anyone outside of the walls. Inside he continued with dangerous drops as dancers paraded about the stage, capes flying behind them. They were the best costumes I have ever, ever seen - Superwoman, Poison Ivy, Cat Woman - you name it, they all stood powerfully on different levels of the stage - not even the Joker or Lex Luthor could have taken this closing party down.

Ushuaia Ibiza, a fantastic closing party!

Ushuaia Ibiza Beach Hotel played host to one of the best parties of the summer on Saturday 1 October, putting an end to a spectacular sixth season with its epic cartoon and super hero themed closing party.

A line-up of musical heroes, comprising eight separate performances, captured the spirits of thousands of party-goers who danced in the open-air to non-stop music for over twelve hours.

Revelers arrived early to the iconic beachfront hotel, where visual effects and sophisticated lighting created images of superheroes and scientists under a tent of colour and lasers.

Dancers dressed as super heroines mingled with the crowds as they danced to the rhythm of today's best house, techno and underground beats.

The day started with DJ Francisco Allendes got the party started at midday with his tech house beats, rounding off a season that has consolidated his career both on and off the island. He was followed by Los Angeles-based Lauren Lane, an artist that we really love, on the afternoon shift, who made the entire Ushuaia camp vibrate for two hours to her mysterious and elegant sounds.

Taking the party into the early evening, magician of sounds and captain of acclaimed label Crosstown Rebels Damian Lazarus cast a spell over the crowds with a masterful and energetic set that will be difficult to forget.

Then Underground house guru and Ushuaia favourite, Andrea Oliva then took to the decks with an unprecedented, skin-tingling set to put an apt end to an astounding Ushuaia season for the ANTS front man.

Saturday arrived, and Ushuaia was closing. The Martinez Brothers, Seth Troxler, Andrea Olivia and more were the flavour of the day here, and they made sure the place was rocking from start to finish with all sorts of genres explored, from Techno to Tech House, Disco to Funky House and even a touch of Reggae! The crowd were up for it and in for the music, the production was spot on and other than Elrow, I preferred it to any of the other nights at Space, which I would have never even thought about saying during the previous years I'd been.

Ushala pool party

Get your phone into selfie mode, this is the place to be seen. The pool party at this luxury hotel is of epic proportions with the epicentre being the huge stage that pumps out the best of house music. But earlier in the day people prefer to parade around the pool, or for top people watching head onto the balcony to watch the crowd below. If the music isn't enough to keep you dancing all day, the podium dancers keep the atmosphere electric. Things kick off at 5pm and roll on until midnight, so this is a perfect pre club party and again, the age group is more mixed with a slightly older crowd. As with many places in Ibiza the drinks can be pricey but well worth the occasional opportunity to splash out for one of the best parties on the island.
